

José Antonio Caínzos

Clifford Chance Spain

Paseo de la Castellana 110, 28046, Madrid

T +34 91 590 75 00

F +34 91 590 75 75

E joseantonio.cainzos@cliffordchance.com

- Partner and Head of the Litigation and Dispute Resolution Department at Clifford Chance Spain from 1998 to date and member of its International Arbitration Group.
- Law Degree from the University of Santiago de Compostela, 1977-1982.
- Admitted as “State Lawyer” (Lawyer of the Spanish Government) in 1985.
- Lawyer for the Spanish Government before the Courts of Madrid between 1986-1990.
- Head of the Spanish Government Lawyers before the Courts of Madrid between 1990-1994.
- Member of the Madrid Bar Association qualified to act within the Spanish jurisdiction.
- Partner at Baker & McKenzie and Head of the Litigation Department in Madrid between 1994-1998.
- Professor of Civil, Procedural and Arbitration Law at the “Instituto de Empresa” Business School in Madrid (Masters in International Legal Practice - Master de Asesoría Jurídica de Empresas) since 1987.
- Lecturer of Arbitration Law at the "San Pablo - CEU" Business School in Madrid between 2004 and 2013.
- Lecturer of Procedural Law at the Instituto de Estudios Bursátiles – Master de Acceso a la Abogacía 2014.
- He has been involved in several arbitration proceedings as sole arbitrator and as a member of Arbitration Tribunals in ad hoc arbitrations and in arbitrations subject to the rules of different Courts of Arbitration, including the ICC, the Madrid Court of Arbitration, the Madrid Civil and Mercantile Court of Arbitration and the Arbitration Court of the Madrid Bar Association.
- He is included on the panels of arbitrators for the Madrid Court of Arbitration, the Spanish Court of Arbitration, the Madrid Civil and Mercantile Arbitration Court (CIMA), the Arbitration Court of the Madrid Bar Association the Arbitration Court of Gipuzkoa, the Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre For Arbitration (KLRCA), and the International Centre for Dispute Resolution (ICDR) of the American Arbitration Association (AAA).
- He participated in the arbitrators training course organised by the ICDR in Brussels, May 2003.
- He worked with the study group which proposed to amend the by-laws and rules of the Spanish Court of Arbitration.

- Formed part of the Madrid Court of Arbitration study group that examined the draft bill on Arbitration in 2003 and proposed several amendments.
- Member of the Spanish Committee of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) in Paris.
- Member of the Arbitration Committee of the Spanish ICC Committee.
- Member of the ICC's Latin-American group.
- He took part in the ICC task force on saving time and expenses in complex arbitrations.
- Member of the Brazilian Arbitration Committee.
- Member of the CARAT.
- Spanish correspondent of the Mexico Arbitration Centre.
- Co-President of the Spanish Arbitration Club and founding member.
- Member of the Board of Directors of the Spanish Branch of the International Law Association (ILA).
- He has been involved in various national and international arbitration courses and seminars, not only by attending, but also as a speaker in Spain and in many other countries, including several countries in Latin America, USA and Portugal. He was an organiser and speaker at the Seminar on the New Spanish Arbitration Law held by the Clifford Chance International Arbitration Group in Madrid, June 2004.
- Author of several articles in various Spanish and international legal journals and publications, both in Spain and abroad, and of a chapter of a book co-written by several authors on "The New York Convention". He is co-author of the books about Spain Arbitration Law and Spanish Mediation Law.
- Member of the editorial committee of the Spain Arbitration Review.
- He has advised and represented Spanish and international companies in relation to investment protection arbitration proceedings before the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID).
- As a lawyer he has represented Spanish and international companies in national and international arbitration proceedings, in ad hoc arbitrations and others subject to the rules of different Courts of Arbitration (CIMA, Madrid Court of Arbitration, Spanish Court of Arbitration, Barcelona Court of Arbitration, Madrid Bar Association, ICC, LCIA, AAA and IATA), in matters dealing with the sale of companies, financial affairs, energy disputes, construction, engineering, shareholders' agreements and a wide variety of mercantile agreements.
- He has represented several companies in interim measures in arbitration proceedings, the presentation of procedural objections in arbitrations, the court appointment of arbitrators, appeals and motions for cancellation, court enforcement of awards and proceedings involving the recognition of foreign awards in Spain, before the different bodies of the corresponding civil courts in each case (Courts of First Instance, Provincial Courts, High Court of Madrid and the Spanish Supreme Court).

- Extensive experience in drafting arbitration clauses.
- He has participated in national and international courses on mediation.
- He has been involved in over 110 arbitration cases, either as an arbitrator or a lawyer. For reasons of confidentiality, details of clients and matters cannot be provided, but it would be possible to supply general information on some cases, including the amounts at stake.
- Ranked as Tier-1 in chambers in dispute resolution matters in the last 12 years.
- Working languages Spanish and English.